

In Julia's Words* Book jacket

In Julia's Words is a collection of poems that explore the emotional journey of a girl becoming a woman. You're taken along on one girl's turbulent journey of love, heartbreak, and loneliness as she learns to gain joy by realizing her own self-worth. You grow alongside her and feel her happiness and regrets as you both experience the transformation into adulthood and ultimately, self-acceptance. It stands as a beacon of hope and understanding in those times we feel utterly alone.

In Julia's Words reminds the reader that even in the bleakest of moments, you can take comfort that you are never alone and there is always another sharing your conflict and rising above it to a brighter tomorrow.

Jessica Williams Author Biography

Jessica Williams is currently a technology consultant and entrepreneur living in Chicago working full time as an Infrastructure Supervisor at McCormick Place. She spends her off hours helping female entrepreneurs build successful online businesses as the founder of Tech Biz Gurl. Jessica has connected with women of all ages across the globe through social media to shape and grow their businesses into personal dreams come true for each of her clients. In the rare moments she's not working, you can find Jessica reading, writing, and looking for inspiration in unexpected places (which usually encompasses a great deal of time on Facebook and Twitter or having misadventures around the city). You can find more inspiration and tech wisdom on the Tech Biz Gurl Facebook page at facebook.com/techbizgurl and by following @techbizgurl on Twitter.