Add up the number of letters for each answer.

Mostly A's: You're Carmen

You've got a determined spirit. You fight for change and refuse to submit to the status quo, no matter the consequences. You enlist help from friends and allies when fighting the good fight, but you sometimes forget that not everyone has your energy or capacity to go nonstop. It's okay to breathe once in a while.

Mostly B's: You're Kayla

You're cautious and methodical. You like to weigh the pros and cons of a decision before jumping into anything, even if your bestie is losing their mind with excitement. Your approach has cost you some fun at times, but you've also saved yourself (and your circle) from some headaches. Don't be afraid to throw caution to the wind sometimes.

Mostly C's: You're Galadain

You are overflowing with self-confidence. You believe you are the best thing since sliced bread and can't figure out why everyone isn't kissing your feet already. You have some pretty deep-seated insecurities you hide well but they still drive most of your actions. You tend to succumb to societal expectations and be who others expect you to be. Try something new without worrying so much about what other people think.

Mostly D's: You're the Trials Master

Wise and seasoned, you know your way around the world. You like to help others grow and learn but also let them fall when they need to. You're kind and compassionate to those you care for and will fight fiercely to keep them safe. You try to be open to change but find yourself longing for the "good old days" when you didn't have to worry about so many things.

Mostly E's: You're the Fans

You're everyone's biggest cheerleader! Always looking on the bright side of the darkest cloud, you can make anyone smile. Your endless energy and positivity are infectious and everyone in your circle loves you for it. Remember that it's okay to acknowledge the bad stuff too and to let yourself feel down sometimes. Lean on your friends just like you tell them to lean on you.

Mostly F's: You're the Clueless Spectators

You do know where you are right now, right? If not, find a safe-looking adult and ask them to help you get home. Your chill, laid back persona may keep you mellow, but make sure you're not missing out on life.
